SPEAKER
P. TANESWARAN

P. Taneswaran is an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya, and a Partner at Messrs Tanes, Khoo & Paulraj. He is registered with the Yayasan Bantuan Guaman Kebangsaan (YBGK) and frequently appears in both civil and criminal courts. His practice focuses on trial advocacy, with an emphasis on witness examination and effective cross-examination to test credibility and uncover the truth.

He brings balanced experience from both civil and criminal cases, tailoring cross-examination strategies to meet the demands of each type of proceeding.

He also delivers talks and training on litigation risk and medical negligence to professionals and corporate organisations.

In this lecture, he will share practical strategies for effective cross-examination, highlighting key principles, common mistakes, and real courtroom experience to help young lawyers build confidence and skill in both civil and criminal trials.
